

No tree to place them under.
No shiny bows or wrapping paper. But the original “Christmas Gifts” are worthy to be examined during this season.

The Gifts
Pt. 3 - Myrrh
12/23/17

Text: Matthew 2:9-11

While Jesus was alive, this gift of Myrrh was prophetically pointing to His _____.

If gold was a gift for a king and Frankincense was fit for a priest, then this wise man’s gift was a prophetic gift presented to a _____.

If we simply celebrate His _____, then we make the mistake that so many will make this season . . . We celebrate Christmas without embracing _____!
